THE BATTLE RAGES.

Bloodshed at the Tennessee Coal Mines.

THE FORT ATTACKED BY MINERS.

Three Assaults Made but the Soldiers Still Hold the Fort—Captain Anderson Captured and Probably Lynched—Fall Details of the State of Affairs Not Obtainable—Labor Troubles Elsewhere.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Captain Keller Anderson, who for nearly a year has held the convicts at Coal Creek, is in the hands of the miners at last. The latest reports, which are reliable, say that the battle at Camp Anderson was commenced as early as 10 o'clock yesterday morning. For several hours the firing was not general. About 2 o'clock the miners, to the number of a thousand, made an organized assault on the fort and were successfully repulsed. The second assault was easily repulsed. The third attempt resulted in a regular pitched battle, and the Gatling guns got in their work, but to what extent is not known. Several of the assailants were wounded, and some of them probably killed, but no one knows for certain.

The fort occupies the crest of a hill commanding a range of Coal Creek valley for five miles east and west. To the north is a spur of the valley in which the stockade of the Knoxville Iron Company is located. It would be impossible for the miners to reach the stockade as long as the fort holds out. They would be compelled to take it before they could take the stockade. To the southward stretches Walden ridge, which is very steep on the northern side, and easy of ascent from the south. To the top for several miles is a series of great ledges of sandstone, making it a natural fortress.

The distance from Fort Anderson across the valley to the top of Walden ridge is about 1,400 yards. On the top of the ridge the miners had planted two field pieces, furnished them by sympathizers in Kentucky. On the north sides of the ridge and the creek skirting the foot of Fort Anderson, the hill is a dense growth of hemlock and laurel. The assailants of the fort had all the advantages of hiding, and if one of their number should be either killed or wounded he could be hastily removed to a place of safety without any one being the wiser. No one is allowed to approach within a half mile of the fort, unless he is known to be in sympathy with the miners. Therefore it is impossible to get the names or even the number of killed or wounded.

Between the first and second assault on the fort three miners were captured. They sent up a flag of truce to Captain Anderson to ask for release. He was expecting such a message and met the men on equal grounds. He was seized by several of them and rushed down the hill, and finally taken to one of the hotels in the village, where he is guarded by Robert Lindsay, a deputy United States marshal, and a number of friends. They are holding him as a hostage and will not agree to give him up until troops and convicts are withdrawn from the valley.

In the meantime, Burl Lindsay, a desperate character and a brother of the deputy marshal, is trying to organize a mob to lynch Anderson. The hotel is surrounded by some 300 well-armed men.

This is one story. The miners have another to the effect that Captain Anderson was drunk and came outside of the fortifications, and the boys picked him up without trouble. He has so far made no statement. His force of 130 men are still holding the fort. The men have been on short rations for three days. Every avenue of supply has been cut off.

Soldier Accidentally Shot.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—A special train arrived from Chattanooga at 8 o'clock carrying Brigadier General Carnes and the First regiment of national guards, 600 strong, and over one hundred volunteer citizens of Chattanooga.

While the train was standing in the yards Edward Woods, of Murfreesboro, a nephew of Governor Buchanan, met with a serious if not fatal accident. He is a member of the Stone river guard, and started to take his musket from the rack when it was accidentally discharged, the load taking effect near the heart. He was taken away with his company and was unconscious when he left here. He will die.

Track Laden with Dynamite.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—A private message from Clinton to the agent of the United Press says: "A courier has just arrived here from Coal Creek. He says fighting is still going on. Four soldiers have been killed, and their Gatling gun is out of order. The Knoxville volunteers and soldiers who left here by special train, will never reach Coal Creek, as the track is loaded with dynamite."

Captain Anderson Lynched.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—A report has just reached here that Captain Anderson has been taken from the hotel, where he was guarded, and spirited away. It is supposed that he has been lynched.

Governor Buchanan's Condition.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 19.—Governor Buchanan is still quite sick, and Adjutant General Norman is directing state affairs.

Probable Solution of the Trouble

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—The Knoxville Iron company lessees of the branch penitentiary at Coal Creek, have given the governor twenty days' notice that they will give up their lease and turn the convicts over to the state authorities. This decision is laid before the miners would probably put an end to the whole trouble.

THE RAILROAD TROUBLE.

State of Affairs in the Railroad Switchmen's Strike.

BUFFALO, Aug. 19.—The state board of arbitration met yesterday afternoon and prepared a circular which was sent to the executive officers of the roads on which the trouble exists. It is stated that the switchmen had expressed a willingness to arbitrate and required to be informed whether the railroads would consent to an adjustment of the difficulty by such arbitration. Vice President Webb returned a reply which is believed to embody the sentiment of the officials of the other roads. It was to the effect that the Central had nothing to arbitrate.

There were few incidents worthy of note in the railroad yards in the closing hours of the afternoon. In the Lake Shore yard a crowd of strikers gathered and stoned two yard engines, breaking the glass in the cab and driving the engineer and fireman from their posts. A messenger was dispatched to General Doyle for a force of militia and, pending their arrival, work was suspended. A few other skirmishes served to relieve the monotony, but none were of a serious nature. So the day wore itself out and night fell upon a situation that was little, if any, improved from the morning. But few freight trains were moved.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the entire force of switchmen on the Nickel plate road joined the forces of the strikers. The trouble was precipitated by the discharge of two men for refusing to switch New York Central freight.

The old stories that the engineers and firemen on the New York Central would go out was revived at a late hour last night, but nothing definite can be learned.

Trying to Get Men at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—An office was opened in the Ferguson building on third avenue today by F. V. Benson, for the purpose of hiring switchmen to take the places of the Buffalo strikers. Mr. Benson is not meeting with dazzling success, for when he mentions Buffalo, negotiations are abruptly broken off by the applicant for work. A large number of Italians and Hungarians visited the office yesterday, but all were turned away as only experienced switchmen are wanted. He promises $80, 65 and $75 per month to experienced men, and will have no others. Transportation to Buffalo will be furnished free.

Some of the Switchmen's union, of Pittsburg, called on Mr. Benson and hired with him for the purpose of securing information to use to prevent others from going to Buffalo. They learned where the men will be kept and when they will be shipped, and will be on hand to talk to them. Unless Mr. Benson is more successful than he was yesterday there will be none leave Pittsburg for Buffalo, because the only names he has now are of men who will not go there when wanted.

Freight traffic on the lines entering this city has not been increased any by the strike at Buffalo.

Pursuing the Homestead Plan.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The World says: "The Central people are pursuing much the same plans that were in operation at Homestead. Several of their agents have been about the downtown wards for the last twenty-four hours engaging the services of stalwart young men who have a reputation for being able to take care of themselves. These young men have been engaged as watchmen to protect the property. One hundred and thirty-left for Buffalo at 4:30 and twenty more at 6 p.m."

Representatives of the labor organizations met the men and discussed the situation with them before they left. All of them agreed that they would do nothing to interfere with the cause of labor; that they would not raise their hands against labor men under any consideration, and that they would refuse to wear weapons if asked.

Believes the Strike Broken.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—President McLeod has received advices from Buf-fay and Waverly which leads him to say that the strike is about broken. One hundred and fifty non-union switchmen left this city last night for Buffalo.

QUIET AT HOMESTEAD.

A Few Little Incidents, but Nothing of a Serious Nature Occur.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 19.—All is quiet here and but very few of the locked-out men are to be seen upon the streets. A careful investigation of Wednesday night's shooting at the railroad bridge has not yet entirely cleared the mystery. The crew of the freight train from which the first shots are said to have come, swear positively that there were no persons on the train. Superintendent Potter maintains that the shots came from revolvers fired between the freight cars; that the bullets struck right in the midst of a squad of militiamen who were doing picket duty along the river front. In all 125 shots were fired at the train by the soldiers, but fortunately no one was injured.

Another detail of soldiers patrolled the streets near the mill for two hours yesterday, but found nothing in the nature of a disturbance.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to assault Superintendent Potter last night while he was sitting on his porch. Four men came along, one threw a stone which struck the house and bounded back into the street. One of the men picked it up and threw it again, and all ran.

Girls Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—The girls employed at Parrott & Taggart's bakery struck yesterday on account of a reduction in wages. One of the girls said an effort was made to cut wages and compel work by the piece, not telling the girls what would be paid them, and under these terms they refused to work. She states they are getting $8 a week, and after fifteen minutes for supper they work until 10 o'clock for a quarter extra.

An Organized Boycott.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Aug. 19.—The trades and labor congress yesterday declared a boycott against the Rhomberg street railway line on account of the company threatening to discharge motorneers who joined labor organizations.

Signed the Scale.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—The Tndor Iron company, of East St. Louis, has signed the Amalgamated scale and work, which has been stopped two months, will be resumed at once.

IRON HALL DIFFICULTY.

A Receiver Will Be Undoubtedly Appointed by Judge Taylor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—The sensational developments in the Iron Hall difficulty yesterday was the refusal of Supreme Cashier Davis, who had just returned from Philadelphia, to surrender his books to the finance committee of the order for investigation.

The committee completed an examination of Supreme Accountant Walker's books and pronounced them all right in every respect. When a demand was made on Davis for his books he refused. He offered no explanation for his action, and as he could not be found later there is a rumor that he has left the city.

The appointment of a receiver for the Iron Hall by Judge Taylor is now a foregone conclusion.

Pay No More Orders.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—The court has ordered the local depository of the Iron Hall to pay no more orders pending the investigation. A number of drafts have already been protested.

Five Children Burned to Death.

GRIFFIN, Ga., Aug. 19.—Five children, left at home locked up by their parents, were burned to death last night. Nathan Ellis and his wife and his sister had gone to church, leaving two children of a dead sister of Ellis and three of the other sister's children locked up in the building. The house was discovered on fire about 9 o'clock, and the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to rescue the children, although their cries for help were heard. It is said the house was set on fire by incendiaries.

Conackers Caught.

OLNEY, Ills., Aug. 19.—A band of three counterfeiters was arrested here Wednesday night. They recently came here from Indiana. Major Connally came down yesterday and held a preliminary trial before United States Commissioner J. A. Montroy, who bound them over to the United States grand jury. Their names are William and Samuel Parr. Another brother escaped, but the officers are in hot pursuit.

An Insane Man's Act.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 19.—Tuesday night Thomas Watts, who lived south of this city, became violently insane. He got out of bed, went to the barn and secured a horse, and started on a dead run in a westerly direction. The last seen of him he was swimming his horse in Eel river, and it is feared that he was drowned. Mr. Watts is one of the most prominent men in Clay county. A large posse of men is scouring the country for him.

Will Stay in Jail.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Aug. 19.—The preliminary trial of William Littell, who stabbed his brother to death, resulted in the murderer being bound over to the court in the sum of $1,000. Owing to Littell's financial condition, and lack of friends and influence, this amount is as good as a much larger figure. From the evidence it seems that the defendant will be able to show a measure of self-defense in his act.

Residence Burned.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Aug. 19.—The residence of the Rev. J. E. Newhouse, east of this city, burned to the ground yesterday, with nearly all its contents. It was insured for $1,000 in different companies.

No Opposition.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Aug. 19.—George M. Russell was nominated for congress by the Republicans of the First congressional district yesterday by acclamation. He has been a candidate twice heretofore.

He Died in a Well.

RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 19.—Daniel Eiler met death from an attack of cramps in a well. He signaled to be drawn up, but when up forty feet he fell to the bottom, and died soon after.

Glass Works to Start Up.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.—The manufacturers of window glass held a meeting here yesterday and adopted the scale of last year, and decided to open the factories Sept. 1.

LATEST SNAKE STORY.

An Indiana Farmer's Experience with a Boa-Constrictor.

ECKERTY, Ind., Aug. 19.—Some time ago, when Choulet's show and menagerie passed through this county, a boa-constrictor of medium size escaped from its cage and spread consternation among the natives. As time wore away the incident was forgotten or looked upon as a "fake." Early yesterday the master was suddenly sprung afresh near Doolittle's inns, south of here, when J. D. Doolittle entered the barn and saw the monster in his hayloft.

Doolittle had lost a calf and several shoots, of which he could find no clew. Their disappearance was explained by the presence of the snake. Seeing the reptile Mr. Doolittle beat a hasty retreat, and after releasing his horses from the barn, and without attempting to take out his wagon, buggy and other property, he applied a match and burned the structure and contents to the ground. The mow was full of new hay.

After the fire had spent its force, the ribs of the reptile were found in the ashes, and they were nearly as large as the ribs of a 200 pound hog. Mr. Doolittle says that he feels worse from the effect which the snake's vicious eyes had upon him than he does over the loss of his barn and contents. The eyes still haunt him. The contents of the barn were the principal loss, as the structure was an old one, and was soon to be replaced. Mr. Doolittle is the proprietor of a large florin mill here.

BACK TO PRISON.

A Diamond Robber Anxious to Serve Out His Time.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.—Lewis G. Vandenburg, one of the men convicted of complicity in the Dayton diamond robbery, walked into the office of Warden James at the penitentiary yesterday and made the modest request that he be allowed to serve out the five years' imprisonment to which he was sentenced last fall.

Vandenburg was accompanied by John T. Norris, the detective. He was one of the main witnesses for Norris in the latter's prosecution of the Dayton chief of police, and was to have testified in that case on the 28th of last December. On the 27th he escaped from the jail, and Norris states that the chief had something to do with the escape. After going out of jail Vandenburg went to Chicago, then headed for Mexico, but at Worth met some men just returning from there, who told him he would be better off in the penitentiary.

He accordingly returned to Chicago, where Norris ran across him and induced him to come to Ohio and serve out his sentence. He agreed to do this, and paid his own way here from Chicago. A queer feature of the case is that his name was scratched off the commitment, which was made out jointly for himself and his partner in the crime, Jackson, and Warden James refused to receive him until he consulted the attorney general.

What Missouri Produced Last Year.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—The labor commission of Missouri has just issued a statement showing the exports by rail from the various counties of Missouri during the year 1891, which shows that the lead and zinc output has passed that of corn and oats, the former having amounted to nearly $5,000,000 during the year. Poultry, butter and eggs make a good third with $4,000,000, while coal and iron come fourth with a little less than $4,000,000. One hundred and five counties are returned as shipping cattle, hogs and poultry, while only fifteen counties shipped lead and zinc. The statement is accompanied by a map with shipments from each county printed upon it, and one peculiar feature developed by the map is that six counties have no railroads and hence no shipments. The total value of shipments from the state during 1891 is given as $125,000,000.

Railroad Collision.

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 19.—At 5:40 yesterday afternoon passenger train No. 112, Rockport to Boston, collided with a freight train at Paradise crossing, Beverly, on the Boston and Maine railroad. Both engines were demolished. Brakeman Frank Meany was killed. Engineer Jones, of the freight train, sustained a bad scalp wound and fracture of the skull and died while being taken to the hospital. Engineer Ran was badly bruised about the legs; Fireman Harper had his leg broken and was otherwise badly injured; James Whalen's leg was broken and his scalp badly wounded. Conductor Macomber had his ankle fractured.

Overestimated His Powers.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Aug. 19.—Henry Loring, of Brownstown, W. Va., tried to swim the Kanawha river. He succeeded in swimming over, but on his return trip threw up his arms and sank to rise no more.

A Dying Burglar Identified.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 19.—A burglar with a bullet against his spinal cord, who is at the hospital, was positively identified yesterday through Detective Norris as Patrick James Flynn, of Boston.

Judge New's Successor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Governor Chase yesterday afternoon appointed Willard New, of Jennings county, judge of the appellate court to succeed his father, Judge Jephtha D. New.

Bridge Gave Way.

CHAGRIN FALLS, O., Aug. 19.—Andrew Keho was fatally injured in Russell's bridge giving away with a traction engine on which he was riding.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Showers, cooler, variable winds.

The Huntington Herald says the snake charmer met his death at that point a few days ago. The columns of the big Cincinnati daily papers indicate that the Herald's statement is true.

The Louisville Post should post up on the First Appellate district. There are forty-one counties in the district instead of twenty-seven as represented by our esteemed contemporary.

The English politician whom Lord Carnegie gave $500 not long since to pay his expenses has sent the money to the Homestead strikers. Carnegie might profit by Mr. Keir Hardie's example. He has money to throw away on foreigners, but none to give to his laborers.

JUDGE HOLT, THE INDEPENDENT.

The Mt. Sterling Advocate says the Republicans propose to allow Judge Holt to make the race for Appellate Judge without being handicapped by a nomination. From another source, it is learned that he doesn't intend to allow his party to nominate him. He wasn't to pose in this fight as an independent in hopes of catching some Democratic votes. Mr. Holt and his Republican schemers haven't consulted the new Election law very closely. If they will examine it carefully, they will find that it interferes very seriously with his independent scheme.

It provides for an official ballot, and no man's name goes on that ballot unless he is the nominee of some party. The voter, of course, can write any one's name on the ballot he may wish to when he comes to vote. If Mr. Holt isn't nominated by the Republicans his name will not be printed on the official ballot, and if his name is not on the official ballot, it simply means the loss of hundreds of votes to him in the district.

A YEAR'S WORK.

What the Reports at the State Meeting of the Christian Church Show.

The annual State meeting of the Christian Church was held at Danville this week. The report of Rev. H. W. Elliott, the general Evangelist and Financial Agent, embraced the work done during the past year in the eighty counties covered by the society. He said "that during the year thirty-two State evangelists in the field had been very busy men. They have worked 5,008 days, preached 3,871 sermons, visited 571 churches, located 118 preachers, organized 44 Sunday schools and 29 prayer-meetings and 15 new churches; 2,425 persons have been added to the various churches. This organization has raised during the year $23,519 for State mission work, and $22,190 has been collected through other avenues. Mr. Elliott also reported the schools at Corbin and Morehead operated under the auspices of the K. C. M. C. as now firmly established and doing much good.

In connection with the above meeting, the annual session of the Woman's Board of Missions was held. The report of Miss Susie Sublett, of Lexington, the General Secretary and State Visitor, shows that twenty-five of the fifty-six local boards in the State had reported to her a total membership of 875; amount of monthly dues, $588.05; dues to State fund, $439.35; total, $3,428.03. More than half of the auxiliaries have failed to send in their reports to Miss Sublett. The auxiliary of Maysville, having twelve members, reported a total of $49.50 for the year, and the Young People's Society of the Christian Church of this city with fifty members contributed $45.15 to the Board's work.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Lexington; Vice President, Mrs. W. S. Keene, Covington; Second Vice President, Mrs. S. J. Spencer, Winchester; Secretary, Miss Susie Sublett, Lexington; Treasurer, Mrs. O. L. Bradley, Lexington; Superintendent of Children's Work, Mrs. O. E. Hagerman, Louisville; Board of Managers; Mrs. Julia Miller, Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew, Mrs. Mary F. Mullin, Mrs. W. H. Munnell, of Louisville; Mrs. Dr. Gish, Hopkinsville; Mrs. M. W. Berry, Paris; Mrs. Artie Ashbrook, Cynthia; Mrs. M. S. Poindexter, Georgetown; Mrs. R. W. Moody, Eminence; Mrs. Geo. Combs, Shelbyville; Mrs. S. J. Spencer, Winchester.

The church has a membership of 100,000 in Kentucky, with 700 houses of worship.

HAZELRIGG.

The Montgomery Man Nominated For Appellate Judge on First Ballot.

Proceedings of the Catlettsburg Convention—Hart of Fleming Presides.

Hon. J. H. Hazelrigg, of Mt. Sterling, is the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

He won the nomination on the first ballot in the district convention at Catlettsburg yesterday afternoon.

The convention was called to order at 2 o'clock by Mr. Van Zant, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the district. A delegate by the name of Robertson, of Pike County, was elected temporary Chairman. The appointment of committees on credentials, resolutions and organization followed this, after which a recess of one hour was taken to give the committees time to report.

On re-assembling, the permanent organization was effected by the election of Hon. R. K. Hart, of Fleming, as Chairman, and Fletch Marecum, of Catlettsburg, as Secretary.

Thomas Turner, of Mt. Sterling, placed Hon. J. H. Hazelrigg in nomination, seconded by Jacob Corbett, of Bell County.

Attorney General Hendrick presented the name of Judge A. E. Cole, of Maysville. His speech was the most eloquent delivered during the convention. Judge Cole's nomination was seconded by Hon. B. E. Roe, of Greenup.

Judge Wilhoit, of Grayson, was placed in nomination by his fellow townsman, Judge Botts, and his nomination was seconded by G. W. Castle, of the county of Lawrence.

This closed the nominations, and a ballot was at once called for and taken. It resulted:

Hazelrigg.....111
Cole.....38
Wilhoit.....23

Hazelrigg received twenty-four votes more than were necessary to win. His nomination was made unanimous. Mason County's vote was cast for the Montgomery man.

A committee at once waited upon the nominee and informed him of the action of the convention. He was escorted to the Chairman's stand and formally accepted the honor. Judge Cole and Judge Wilhoit also appeared and made speeches, warmly thanking their friends for the support accorded them in the late contest, and pledging themselves to work for the success of the ticket in November. The convention adjourned about 6 o'clock.

James Harvey Hazelrigg was born in Montgomery County, six miles from Mt. Sterling, on a farm, December 6, 1848. He went to the country schools until the civil war was about half over. Then he entered the Confederate service, remaining until the close. He graduated from the Lexington University, College of Arts, and afterwards read law in the office of Apperson & Reid, at Mt. Sterling.

He was City Attorney of Mt. Sterling two years and Judge of the Montgomery County Court five years. He has been a life-long Democrat. He is married and has an interesting family composed of a wife and four children.

This district is represented on the Appellate Bench at present by Judge Holt, a Republican, who is a candidate for reelection. He was chosen in 1884, defeating Hon. Robert Riddell by 625 majority. The vote received by Hazelrigg in the convention at Catlettsburg shows that he is strong in the mountain counties. If the Democrats will go to work in earnest, there are excellent prospects of redeeming the district in November.

Terrible Ravages of Cholera in Russia.

SPREADING TO OTHER PLACES

True State of Affairs Suppressed by Orders of the Government—Rioting Resorted to by the Ignorant Class—Other Dispatches from Across the Ocean.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 19.—According to an official statement there were reported from the various infected districts in Russia yesterday, 8,458 new cases of cholera and 3,207 deaths. This is an increase over the previous day's figures of 649 new cases and 535 deaths. The disease is rapidly increasing in the town of Poltava, in South Russia. The returns show that twenty-five deaths, due to cholera, occurred there on Saturday and Sunday.

The exact number of cases in the government of Poltava is not reported, as many of the smaller villages and hamlets are not in telegraphic communication with the capital of the government. It has been reported to the minister of the interior from Nijni-Novgorod, that cholera is spreading there with renewed intensity. On all the squares large kettles are set up and constantly filled with hot water. The tradesmen of Novgorod have given 2,000 kilderkin of red wine for the service of the poor.

About thirty persons, including many women, have been arrested in connection with the recent disgraceful cholera riots at Saratoff, and are to be tried on the capital charge of the murder of Dr. Molchanoff, as well as for the wanton destruction of property. The body of the unfortunate doctor is described as having been beaten into an unrecognizable form by the infuriated mob.

The official bulletins of the cholera epidemic previously published daily in the government Gazette now only appear occasionally, and the public are consequently kept for many days in total ignorance of the progress of the disease. It is not permitted to any journal to publish information concerning the spread of the epidemic or the mortality until such reports have appeared in The Gazette.

Riot and incendiary fires are reported from the cholera-stricken city of Serdodsk, about one hundred miles from Saratoff. Three hundred houses have been burned and great distress prevails among the people thus rendered homeless. Serious riots have broken out at Hughes' rolling mills at Hughesofka. Attempts have been made to mob the foremen and representatives of the firm.

The governor of Taganrog, on the sea of Azoff, has dispatched more Cossack troops to Ekaterinoslav, where cholera riots are in progress. Few details can be got beyond the statement that many buildings have been wrecked by mobs and that several fires have been set.

Parliament Prorogued.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Parliament was prorogued yesterday evening until Dec. 4. The announcement was made in the house of lords by the royal commissioners, Baron Herschell, Earl Spencer, the Earl of Kimberley, the Marquis of Ripon and Viscount Oxenbridge. The house of commons, which had resumed its sitting a few minutes after 9 o'clock, was summoned so the house of lords by the black rod to hear the prorogation. Five minutes later the speaker returned without the mace. He withdrew then without having taken the chair, and thus parliament stood prorogued.

Duke of Manchester Dead.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—George Victor Drogo Montagu, Duke of Manchester, who has been lying dangerously ill at Tandridge Castle, county of Armagh, Ireland, is dead. His grace was born in 1853, and on May 22, 1876, he was married to Consuela, daughter of Don Antonio Yzenga del Valle, of Ravenswood, in the United States, and of Cuba. He leaves a widow and three children.

MURDEROUS DEMON.

Notorious Crook Escapes from the Pittsburg Work House.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Charles Havers, alias Hunter, a prisoner and a notorious crook, sawed his cell door at the Allegheny county work house at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and, after beating and cutting Keeper John Weberhart so that he will die, made his escape. Havers was serving his third term of imprisonment. He played sick Wednesday and did not work.

Keeper Weberhart was beaten into insensibility and badly cut with the saw. The murderous demon then jumped on him, trampling his vitals out. Havers then threw his victim in his own cell, took his keys, locked the cell door and with the keys opened his way to liberty. The prison officers did not discover the assault and escape until 6 o'clock in the morning.
